Tamworth Community Corner!

- Bearcamp Bikes will continue to be at most upcoming fall Tamworth Farmers' Markets on Saturday mornings in Tamworth Village. And our open BBBarn times, Sun & Tues 3 - 5 pm, continue, as well as by appointment. We have a good selection of free bikes available; one could be an option for your holiday giving. We appreciate so many generous donations people have been making this fall - a good variety of bikes that we get back in good shape. And we have some rustier but functional bikes that make good winter bikes, to keep you pedaling even on salty roads. Keep on biking, Chris, Jerry, Clark, Ned, etc.
- At 3pm on Wednesday, November 1, Eric Mulligan of Tamworth's New Hampshire Mushroom Company will give a talk on mushrooms -- their health benefits and uses at the Cook Library. Bring your taste buds as the event will include tasting two easy to make mushroom appetizers including a soup. Please contact RSVP at tamwort...@yahoo.com or 603-323-8511.
- Saturday November 11th from 11:00 - 1:00 is the 2nd annual Chili/Chowder cookoff at Union Hall. We still have a couple of spots open for anyone wanting to enter their chili or chowder. There is a $10.00 entry fee, prizes are awarded for the voters choice for best chili and best chowder. Anyone can stop by and for $10.00 it gives you the chance to taste and vote for some of finest chili and chowder in Town. Located at Union Hall, 29 Union Hall Road, South Tamworth. Call Melanie 603-323-8905 or Pam 603-707-0654 for more information.
- Saturday November 4th we will begin our winter hours, 10 to noon. We will continue to stay at our UUFES location for its superior visibility, until we get our first plowable snow storm. At that point we will lose our roadside and field parking, and then it makes sense to move to our winter location behind the Town Offices where there is lots of plowed parking in the village. Hope that's clear. We'll keep you posted. - Tamworth Farmers Market
