Tamworth Community Corner!

- A special “Thank You” to the Tamworth Recycling Committee for saving & reusing Easter eggs from last year, and for helping us fill them with treats. Many hands make light work! Reduce, Reuse, Recycle!
- Remick Farm: SATURDAY, MARCH 30 | 12:00–2:00 PM: Join us following Tamworth Parks & Recreation’s Easter Egg Hunt! Here at the farm, baby animals will be available for viewing and petting at the Museum Barn. Museum staff will be available to introduce you and to answer questions. (The museum store closes at noon.) It’s going to be an *eggs*traordinary FUN Saturday in Tamworth village!
- Get ready for the eclipse day: Come to the Cook Memorial Library on Saturday, April 6 between 11 and 1 for eclipse-related activities. Make a pin-hole viewer, draw some eclipse chalk art, trace your shadow on our sidewalk, and more. Eclipse glasses: We have eclipse glasses to give away (limit 2 per family), thanks to STARNet's SEAL (Solar Eclipse Activities for Libraries) program. Community eclipse observing: On Monday, April 8 between 2:15 and 4:30 PM, we'll gather on the Tamworth History Center's village green to view the eclipse as a community.
- Come join the Chocorua Public Library for the 2nd Annual Chili Cook Off @ the Tamworth Lyceum! We are still accepting for at entries for this contest! Tickets are on sale now at <https://bit.ly/2024ChiliTickets>. If you are interested in registering click the link below. <https://bit.ly/24ChiliCookoff> Chocorua Public Library serves any and all Carroll County Residents! Thank you to Tamworth Distillery for the donation of the space and creation of cocktails and mocktails for this event! There will be a cash bar available during the event!
- At the Julia Lombard Moose Cabin 3647 Chinook Trail Wonalancet. Join Helen for tea and discussion of Wonalancet folks of yore, roads, water or the chemistry of rocks.. 4 PM. Call 603-387-3638 to sign up for April 3rd and to state your preference. Fist call gets the choice. 4 folks maximum.
